

10 Thanksgiving Riddles

1)

There's lots of me at Thanksgiving
But you don't want me to be wasted
Because my meat's really juicy
Just so long as I have been basted

2)

This popular grain is yellow
And is grown outside in a field
Many people add some butter
Once it's cooked and the husk is peeled

3)

These are a type of starchy food
Mashed or fried they can be found
They often come from Idaho
And they are grown underground

4)

Black and white clothes and funny hats
Were what they wore when living
Way back in the 1600s
At the first Thanksgiving

5)

You'll eat this fruit with turkey
To help fill up your belly
It sometimes comes as a sauce
And sometimes it's a jelly

6)

This is a tasty side dish
Everyone will want to chow down
It's made of sweet potatoes
Marshmallows and sugar that's brown

7)

An annual tradition
On every Thanksgiving Day
Is watching the great team sport
The Lions and Cowboys play

8)

If you want to picture fall
Then this image would be best
It is a horn that is filled
With all the season's harvest

9)

Aboard this ship
The pilgrims did go
Sounds like a month
And something you grow

10)

Something I spy
With my little eye
An orange squash
That's baked in a pie
